
Services

Technical Support

NEPA Compliance

- Requirements analysis/strategy development
 - Lead & cooperating agency,
 - 3rd party EIS
 - Coordination with state environmental requirements
- Environmental & economic analysis of alternatives
- NEPA document preparation (EIS, EA, ER)
- Critical review of NEPA documentation
- Management assessment of NEPA program effectiveness

Transmission Line Permitting

- Alternative route identification & selection
- Environmental impact analysis
- State permit preparation
- Regulatory support (e.g., expert testimony)

Technical Support

McCallum-Turner provides nuclear, environmental and public relations expertise independent of the prime permitting/licensing contractor, vendor or construction contractor, while providing the ability to incorporate inputs from them.

- Provide nuclear expertise and experience in other program support areas
- Broad range of technical expertise

Technical Support

- State and local permitting and regulator interface
- Public relations
- State environmental compliance and federal (e.g., USACE) NEPA support
- Integration of primary permitting/licensing activities with other needs (e.g., data/analyses for permits)
- Interface with financing entities